TENNEY HIGH SCHOOL SONG

The call to advanced and broader fields is ringing loud and clear;
With hope and expectation high, we answer without fear.

The work we've done, the truths we've learned will bring success we know.
Undaunted firm, we'll ever be, as t'ward our goal
we go.

Farewell to thee dear Tenney High, we'll always remember thee.
For all we've gained within your walls, we'll always cherish thee

CLASS HISTORY

By
JANICE SHAFER
and
KIMBERLY LODGE

Listen, my classmates, and you shall hear
Of historic events of our past four years.
'Twas the fourth of September in '63
Hardly a senior is now among thee
Who will forget that hectic day and year.

As the last freshman class to enter the school
"Obey the seniors" was the general rule.
We were teased and abused and we lost our way,
But finally came that one great day
When we were received in grand array.

When brisk October rolled around,
Our freshman royalty was crowned.
Carolyn Smith was queen and Bill Galarneau was king,
And as the Grand March began we found
That our class officers were victory bound (Pres. Bill Laffin, V.P. Eileen Cunningham, Sec. Sara Hanson, and Treas. Beth Tobia.)
And our Student Council marched to the sound (Nancy Langevin, Marcia Perrault, and Joyce Borren.)

'Twas the dead of winter by the village clock.
To the Military Ball we all did flock.
There was gaity and dancing until dawn,
And when we all became tired and worn,
We sadly departed to the sound of the cock.

The winter came and went
And Field Day was the Cadet's next event.
When the activities were done,
Richie Waithe, John Salmon, and Greg Bernardi had won
And they looked forward to the days yet to come.

From our class, two majorettes they chose,
To the sound of the march, Harriet Kiriajes and Barbara Perkins rose
With radiant smiles and pointed toes.
They accepted their victory with gracious pride
To do their best they would always strive.

Suddenly we realized it was June.
No more were we freshmen to follow the tune
Of seniors all mighty and juniors vain.
We'd sun at the beach and return again
To a higher caste in Tenney's domain.

When we returned to school in September,
Hard work and study were on the agenda,
But our services we were still to render
For in rank our class was still the youngest.

Once again we flocked to the polls.
On these sophomore officers we were sold (Pres. Fred Nassar, V.P. Eileen Cunningham, Treas. Beth Tobia, Sec. Joanne Grasso)
And our Student Council members (Suzy Schruender, Ann Gross, Nancy Langevin, and Kathy Brown) were told
That they'd speak for our class for another year.
Our new representatives we all did cheer.

Winter crept up on the heels of fall
And again it was time for the Military Ball.
Red, white, and blue crepe paper hung in the hall.
We watched the drills and danced 'til dawn
And before we knew it the night was gone.

'Twas the warmth of spring by the village clock
Being measured for class rings was the general talk.
D.A.R. medals two did win
Jan Shafer and Bill Laffin received the pins.
And we anxiously awaited our rings' coming in.

At cheering tryouts on the bleachers we did sit
To watch the girls cheer and do their splits
And six sophomore girls that they did pick
Marion Winward, Ellen Kenney, Suzy Schruender, Marcia Perrault, Mal Clark, Beth Tobia were congratulated by all.
As they quickly made plans for the coming fall.

Majorette tryouts came in May
Barbara Perkins and Harriet Kiriajes were chosen, needless to say,
As the Cadets looked forward to field day.
Richie Waithe, Ron Kobrenski, and Bill Kaupinis rose to great heights,
And Ron had the Patenaude medal in his sights.

Looking ahead to our junior year,
We were suddenly filled with hopes and fears
Finished was half of our high school career.
As upperclassmen we'd made the grade,
And, in our class, history was made.

We again elected our officers four Pres. Fred Nassar, V.P. Ron Kobrenski, Sec. Joanne Grasso, and Treas. Harriet Kiriajes all knew the score.
For our Student Council we chose five more. (Kathy Brown, Ann Gross, Suzy Schruender, Glenn Kachadorian, and Nancy Langevin)
Who ably spoke for the junior class
Our approval they did pass.

'Twas October fifth in '65
When our class rings did finally arrive.
To flaunt them to our peers we did strive.
We were now upperclassmen free and clear
And left in high school we had two short years.

Cadet activities were in the spotlight
And the Military Ball was a happy night
When Ron Kobrenski, Richie Waithe, and Bill Kaupinis won the Junior Drill honors.
Then Field Day was again upon us
And the boys who won (Richie Waithe, Ron Kobrenski, Pete May, and Patenade Medal winner, Ron Kobrenski) were at their height.

At cheering and majorette tryouts we did applaud,
For their efforts these girls made the cheering squad (capt. Suzy Schruender, Beth Tobai, Marcia Perrault, Mal Clark, Joyce Borren, Marion Winward, Ellen Kenney, Eileen Cunningham, Donna Fichera, Barbara Lawton and Jackie Ciras)

And eight more girls, our majorettes, we did reward. (capt. Harriet Kiriajes, Barbara Perkins, Joyce Desrocher, Nancy Russell, Linda Aubert, Cheryl Wilson, Mary Ellen Harris, Jan Shafer and Kim Lodge)
Our girls anxiously awaited the coming year
During which they would devotedly twirl and cheer.

As our junior year came to a close,
Two of our classmates the D.A.R. chose
To receive medals. As the story goes,
Both Suzy Schruender and Tom LeClair
Were the worthy chosen pair.

The Honor Society induction was a May event
To the front of the auditorium these students were sent (Barbara Addison, Linda Barret, Bev Brown, Tina Dobrynski, Mike Federico, Joe Grossman, Dorothy Hillner, Bill Kaupinis, Bill Laffin, Barbara Lawton, Tom Le Clair, Kim Lodge, Mary Lee Moyniham, Jan Pankauski, Marcia Perrault, Jan Shafer, Joanne Sierpina, Kathy Smith, Keith Stetson, Cindy Suzadelys, Beth Tobia, and Marion Winward)
In recognition of their scholastic accomplishment.

Soon it was time their officers to elect.
And these were the ones they did select. (Pres. Mike Federico, V.P. Bill Laffin, Sec. C. Suzadelys, Treas. Tom Le Clair, Hist. Mary Lee Moyniham)

We were through with history and Manter Hall
And Hamlet's "To be or not to be,"
In our senior year we'd have a ball
For never until then had we
Such status and priority over all.

Again it was time for class elections.
In our candidates we desired perfection.
These officers (Pres. Pete May, V.P. Eileen Cunningham, Sec. Sara Hanson, Treas. Harriet Kiriajes, S.C. T. LeClair, B. Tobia, S. Schruender, K. Brown, N. Langevin, A. Gross) were our selection.
They would represent us for one short year.
Little did we realize graduation was so near.

To the Yearbook Staff Mr. Lister appointed fifteen,
And Editor Ellen Kenney led this team (Beth Tobia, Cynthia Suzedelys, Bill Laffin, Mike Federico, Janice Shafer, Kim Lodge, Tom LeClair, Kathy Smith, Joanne Sierpina, Barbara Addison, Marcia Perrault, Ron Kobrenski, Mary Lee Moynahan, Barbara Lawton)
They worked tirelessly from afternoon till dusk,
And never did they complain or fuss.
Their "book of books" they held in great esteem.

Kim Lodge was the editor of the Blue and White.
She worked with a crew who would diligently write
To meet the deadlines was the writer's plight.
Bill Kaupinis, Jan Shafer, Barbara Addison, and Bill Laffin each headed a page,
And built the paper stage by stage.

Our football team was captained by three,
Fred Nassar, Bob Feugill, and Al Daigle led the motley crew
We heartily cheered our Rangers true.
Much courage and vigor they did display
As they practiced and played on Saturdays.

In an open convertible three girls did ride.
Over the Homecoming game, Football Queen Elaine Heffernon would preside
Her attendants Ann Gross and Sara Hanson sat by her side.
The girls were as happy as they could be,
And we all agreed they were a lovely three.

The members of the cross country team ran,
And leading them were Dan O'Rourke and Tom Trussell, their captains
At this time girls' sports also began.
The field hockey team was second in the league
Under Janice Fugge and JoAnne Martone's ready and able lead.

In October at the Cadet Hop,
These officers came out on top,
Col. Ron Kobrenski, Lt. Col. Richie Waithe, Maj. Pete May, and Maj. Bill Kaupinis were the cream of the crop.
Next they announced who the Cadet Queen would be Queen Eileen Cunningham, Beth Tobia, and Carolyn Smith were the three.

December eighth was opening night,
And for Mrs. Hovanasian, Marian Winward, and Leo Croteau, the play turned out right.
In Boys and Ghouls Together, Leading the cast,
Were Count Dean Allen and Letha Jane Worster looking aghast.
And our play out did those of the past.

Basketball, Baseball, and Track were three fine teams
The captains of each were held in esteem.
The basketball team, Dan O'Rourke did lead,
It was Joe Buglione the baseball team did heed,
And of Phil Sparta, our track captain, much we would read.

To Student Government Day, Students did swarm
From every Middlesex village and town,
To run the legislature for a single day.
His ability to lead Bill Laffin did display,
As he ran the state in the American way.

Our girls' basketball and softball teams received much praise,
For after practicing for many days,
The League Championship they both did claim.
Paula Pagliuso and Carol Mlechko received much fame,
For the way Miss Bailey coached the games.

The Best of '67 was easy to choose.
With our King and Queen, how could we lose?
Mal Clarke and Pete May reigned with a regal touch
Over a class which to us has meant so much.

As our senior year was coming to an end,
Our Prom, Camelot, we all did attend.
The night was a dream for every lass and lad,
And though we'll long remember all the fun we had,
The finality of the evening made us sad.

On June eighth came our graduation.
Valedictorian Janice Pankauski, Salutatorian Bill Laffin, Honor Essayist Cynthia Suzedelys, and Class Day Orators Marcia Perrault and Bill Kaupinis stood in acclamation.
As each graduate received his diploma in the cap and gown he wore,
We sadly bid farewell to Tenney's closing door.

You know the rest which we have not told,
Of finals passed by just a hair,
Of victories we have always shared,
And characters we have tried to mold.
Our memories of Tenney we'll always hold dear
Recollections of four short happy years.

CLASS WILL

by
BARBARA LAWTON
BETH TOBIA

We, the Class of 1967 of Tenney Memorial High School, Methuen, Massachusetts, being as sound in mind and body as possible, and realizing that the time has come to leave these classic halls forever, do hereby make public this, our last will and testament.

I, Pete May, leave to the "Admiral", one full scale banana boat so he can patrol the third floor corridor.

We, Glen, Ron, Fred, Pete, & Tim, leave to Mr. Lister one pound of cheese.

We, the boys in second period physics class, leave to Mr. Russell one block of sandpaper to remove all the chemical formulas from the desks.

We, the seniors who have been fortunate enough to have him, leave Mr. Jennings a fresh supply of student teachers.

We, Jane Worster and Marcia Perrault, leave Mr. Fredette a bathrobe so he won't have to borrow Mr. Jennings'.

We, Shirley Desrocher and Jeanne Haldane, leave some junior all our library duties.

We, Ann Corey and Terri Mesiti, leave our loud laughs to echo forever in the halls of Tenney.

We, Marsha Clamp and Sue Diodati, leave our hotel room in New York to any deserving sophomore Y-Teen member.

I, Lynda Barrett, leave to Mr. Fradette a full 6 month supply of "No Grow", the new scalp treatment.

We, Third period algebra class, leave Mr. Russell Smith one can of oil for his shoes.

I, Judy Lippold, leave to Ronnie Simoes my trumpet mute.

We, the occupants of room 217, leave to our homeroom teacher Mrs. Monroe, a recording of "Good morning, students."

I, Randy Riccio, leave to members of the class of 1968 my book entitled "How to Stay Out of School All Year With One Cold"

We, Ted, Randy, Nick, and Pete, leave the last four seats in room 313 to anyone who wants to play 45's.

I, Janice Malendrino, leave to Mr. Hannigan one patrol leader's badge so he can patrol the third floor with authority.

I, Tim Ford, leave to next year's lunch periods a section of cafeteria ceiling spotted with various fruits and vegetables.

We, Tim, Pete, Fred, Ron, and Glen, leave Mr. Russell Smith one Humphrey Bogart "Get Tough Manual"

I, Joyce Borrun, leave Linda Vancoppernolle my dilapidated cheering sneakers.

I, Bev Brown, leave my empty seats in Mr. Fradette's room to any blonde who can sit there for 2 periods in a row.

We, the third period algebra class, leave to Mr. Russell Smith, one gyroscope to keep him from rocking on his feet.

We, Harri, Bev, Peggy, Eddie, and Joe, leave our unfinished works of art to Linda Bardsley, better known as Chip.

We, the French students of first period, leave Mr. Gagne our education which has been so sadly neglected.

We, Bette Ann Hajjar and Mal Clarke, leave Mr. Russell Smith a loud speaker so that his future classes may hear him.

I, Sam Naddif, leave my permanent desk in detention hall and request that it is taken good care of for sentimental reasons.

I, June Zazour, leave Mrs. Lockaby my Algebra II book with all the answers in it in hopes that one of her students can pass next year.

I, Chris Devaney, leave Denney McKinney 3 cartons of Elmer's Wood Grip all purpose glue.

I, Barbara Lawton, leave to a member of next year's cheering squad my ability to clap my hands and stamp my feet at the same time.

We, Cindy Suzedelys and June Longo, leave Mr. Gagne a lifetime supply of Canadian paper so he won't have to rip it off the ceiling.

I, Lynn Turchi, leave to my sister Debbie all the fun I had during high school.

We, Shirley Desrocher, Margaret Feoli, Linda Floyd, & Jean Haldane, leave Miss Lange our private little corner.

I, Dianne Maziars, leave to some blonde my seat in Mr. Duncan's homeroom.

I, Margaret Feoli, leave Barbara Herman all my jobs in room 215.

I, Judy Lippold, leave Carol Adamson one half full drippy bottle of white shoe polish for her majorette boots next year, hoping she won't make the Mess on the girl's locker room floor that I did.

I, Donna DiNatale, leave to my little brother Dino a front seat in room 307 with the Admiral.

We, Joe Buglione, and Ed Joaquin, leave Miss Skiba one bottle of aspirin to relieve her period six headaches.

We, Donna DiNatle, Marion Groves, and Charlotte Spinello, leave Miss Skiba in peace.

We, Doreen, Marion, Donna, Linda, Coleen, Loraine, leave to Louie, Kathy, and Karen our sloppy, noisy, and cute lunchtable.

I, Marion Groves, leave my sister Maryalice the thrill of being in a class with Mr. Melia.

I, Dennis Elias, leave Mrs. Hovanasian a giant megaphone.

We, Tim Ford, and Dennis Elias, leave to Mr. Russell Smith a smile from ear to ear.

We, Joyce Carlson and Mary Ellen Harris, leave to some deserving junior girls two uneaten lunches that were wasted on two very special boys.

I, Yvette Demers, leave Mr. Fradette and Mr. Jennings a book with 1,000 jokes so they can remember me and my funny laugh each time they laugh.

I, Dennis Elias, leave to Miss Coulson one large bottle of instant coffee, one large box of tea bags, and one large box of Stella Doro's Assorted Cookies.

I, Keith Stetson, leave to Mr. Russell a new slide rule so that he will be able to figure out the problems before the class does.

We, the members of last year's period five English class in room 216 leave to Mrs. Hershfield all the love and respect due to a wonderful woman, a great teacher, and a dear friend.

We, Jackie Ciras, Mal Clarke, Lynn Turchi, Marion Winward, Nancy Wetmore, Betty-ann Hajjar, Elaine Heffernan, Bev Vogel, Sara Hansen, and Eileen Cunningham leave to a group of juniors one well-gossipped on lunch table with too few chairs.

I, Bev Vogel, leave to Irving True, our family in hopes that he will be a good father to all our brood.

We, the seniors of Mrs. Lockaby's third period Algebra II class, leave her for her own personal use one electric heater for her warm and inviting daily class.

I, Karol Kalil, leave one used camel to those converted camel jockies, Smitty and Tuna Fish.

We, the senior girls of Sylvester table leave to Mr. Rimas the names of all the buffaloes that Buffalo Bill killed to be used in a quiz next year.

I, Tina Dobrzynski, leave to Diane Freije my "Girl Friday" Kit which includes a large bottle of tranquilizers to be used whenever Mr. Gagne finds a job for her.

I, Janice Dawson, leave to my beloved friend, Doreen Paplaskas, one large but dirty gymsuit, which may be too big for her.

I, Marthe Venti, leave to Roberta Borelli my favorite mirror so that she may continue to use it on the bus every day.

I, Janice Dawson, leave to the lovely Jacobbucci twins one badly torn French dictionary, plus a copy of La Bourgeois Gentilhomme even though they're Italians.

We, the boys of Mrs. Hershfield's third period study, leave her 400 pounds of used chewing gum.

I, Fred Nassar, leave Mr. Gurry one wrench to tighten the loose nut behind the wheel of his scout.

We, Joyce Desrocher and Suzy Schruender, leave Patti Paine with two lonely years.

We, Lorraine Pellerin and Cindy Croteau, leave Mr. Gurry six cents worth of gas at whatever station he wishes to purchase it from.

I, Nancy Russell, leave to my sister, Jane, a four year headache of writing columns for the Sun.

We, Ray Foley, Tom Tinney, and Bill Caron leave to Sergeant McDermott one used sign for next year's lunch periods.

I, John Moschetto, leave to Mr. Duncan my great catching ability.

We, Linda Cubelli, Marie Panto, and Sharon Coco leave to the underclassmen all the lost and stolen gymsuits, socks, and sneakers.

We, Lorraine Pellerin and Cindy Croteau, leave Miss Lange some broken machines.

We, Janice Fugge and Jo-anne Martone, leave Pam Kus and Nancy Appleyard all our bruises and pains we have received in our years of field hockey.

I, Bill Caron, leave to Mr. McDermott one cherry bomb to throw out his classroom window next year.

I, Marie Panto, leave one cupcake to Mr. Constantineau.

We, Linda Aubert and Nancy Russell, leave to any deserving junior permanent passes to the gym.

I, Fred Nassar, leave to Rusty Florenze and Bob Deschene, the aches and pains, the cold showers, and a book on "How to Argue With the Reffs" for next year's football season.

I, Judy Mooshien, leave to John Nastasia, free lunches for one year, and the right to borrow money whenever he pleases.

We, the officers of the band—Gerry Quintal, Barbara Addison, and Elaine Heffernan, leave Mr. Tarlian one blue Barbie Roll sweater so that he may wear it to the football games instead of his green one.

I, Janice Shafer, leave my car, Rumble Guts, to Rick Hoffman with the hope that she will bring into his life all the novelty and variety that she has brought into mine.

We, Claudia, Ann, Bev and Tina, leave four slightly soiled dust rags a can of cleaning fluid, three days of hard work, and a lot of dust to next year's delegation for cleaning the trophy case.

I, Tina Dobrzynski, leave to Mr. Gagne one very messy filing cabinet and sincere apologies for never getting around to cleaning it.

I, Mike Federico, leave my part in the senior play to some lucky senior of next year.

I, Claudia Houston, leave Mr. Jennings a non-skid ice cube.

I, Sharon Allen, leave to Mr. William Russell, a moth eaten lab coat with the "Hong Cong Crud".

I, Lynn Turchi, leave my seat on the bench during softball season to any deserving underclassman.

I, Sharon Allen, leave to Jane Pitman my African ring and our private little joke.

I, Robert Whitaker, leave Tiffy Nelson a whole bag of his favorite silver mint candies for next year.

I, Jim Hoegan, leave to Mr. Fradette and Mr. Jennings each an unused cup and an ice cube.

We, Claire, Janice, Tom, Pete, Edgar, Richie, Nick, Beth, and Jane of sixth period study leave to Mr. Heggarty silence as it always was.

We, Lorraine Pellerin and Cindy Createau, leave Miss Chadwick our tardy slips.

We, Maureen Slattery and Valencia Napoli, leave next year's cadet secretaries all the gossip, all the cleaning rags, 183 days to work for the corps, all the patience necessary to look for lost drumsticks, and bearing the noise on Wednesdays, and finally all the great times we have had during the past year.

I, Jim Hoegan, leave to Mr. Gagne page 71 in my French workbook.

I, Bryce Wilson, leave to Mrs. Monroe my great spelling ability.

I, Marsha Clamp, leave to Mr. Duncan, a dislocated thumb for future football games.

We, the senior boys, leave Miss Chadwick a micro mini skirt.

I, Sharon Allen, leave Mr. Law my efforts toward our new Nurses' club and my many trips to his office.

We, Linda Kachadorian and Carol Avadesian, leave Mrs. Hershfield with a quiet third period study next year on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

I, Dennis Elias, leave to Mr. Lister his detention hall.

We, the senior boys, leave Herbie the janitor a date on "What's my line."

We, Maureen Slattery and Valencia Napoli, leave to Mr. Huebner a megaphone, a bottle of aspirin, and all the courage and luck in the world.

We, Mr. Fradette's fifth period class, leave him a class that could never be our replacement.

I, Dennis Elias, leave Mr. Lister a radar system to track down the kids running to lunch.

We, Lorraine Pellerin and Cindy Croteau, leave Mrs. Hughes book reports.

We, Maureen Slattery and Valencia Napoli, leave Company B a year's supply of bubble gum to be distributed at every drill practice by Jeff Grenda and Dave Zappala.

We, the class of 1967, leave to Mr. Beaumont, of course, an unbreakable P.A. system.

I, Linda Kachadorian, leave to any junior girl, the job of visiting Mr. Rimas every third period.

We, the senior cheerleaders, leave to next year's squad a year's supply of dimes to buy cokes and coughdrops for the football and basketball games.

I, Harriet Kiriages, leave to Nancy Ruffin Mr. Taralian.

I, Sharon Allen, leave Miss Pearson the broken typewriter first row fourth seat which triple spaces when it should single space on timings.

We, Maureen Slattery and Valencia Napoli, leave to the Drum and bugle corps bugles for next year's affairs and as many pairs of earplugs as they need.

I, Jim Hoegan, leave Jay Messina twenty-five pounds.

I, Nancy Russell, leave one pair of worn out boots, one dented baton, and a pair of sore feet to Loraine Longo.

I, Linda Aubert, leave the name "Bull" to any deserving person at Miss Bailey's decision.

We, Lynn Turchi and Bev Vogel, leave Mr. Jennings one patrol belt and one shiny badge with our fondest regards so that he may patrol his end of the second floor.

I, Jim Hoegan, leave to Mr. Lister 2 alka selzers, for his head must be spinning at the thought of losing us.

I, Harriet Kiriages, leave Mr. Gagne peace and quiet.

I, Sharon Allen, leave Miss Chadwick my broken pieces of pastels after finishing her Christmas mural.

We, Rita Thomas and Janice Malendrino, leave to any two sneaky juniors the right to take two lunches.

I, Linda Aubert, leave to Franny Tulley, one bent baton, one tight uniform, a pair of boots with holes in the bottom, and one too small hat.

We, the girls of Mr. Fradette's 6th period algebra class, leave him our phone numbers.

I, Linda Franciosa, leave Mr. Jones one quiet sixth period study.

We, Janice Malendrino, June Longo, Claire Marcoux, and Roseanne Lucciano, leave to any four juniors our lockers behind the swinging doors where we have been squeezed in, locked in and bruised in an unmentionable place.

I, Sharon Allen, leave Cheryl Boumilla our jokes before school.

We, Mr. Fradette's first and third period classes, leave his barber one lawn mower to cut Mr. Fradette's hair with.

We, the Tigers, Leave Mr. Duncan one slightly used football.

We, Mr. Smith's sixth period problems class, leave him a piece of unbreakable glass for his back door.

We, two seniors in second period gym class, leave Pat St. Jean a volley ball.

I, Sharon Allen, leave Mrs. Kern a new set of sheets, 4 cans of dirt, and a beat up hospital bed for her future nurses.

We, the former students of Mr. Rimas, leave him our unfinished check-ups.

We, Bill Caron, Leo Croteau, Ray Foley, and Tom Tinney, leave to Herbie a screw driver to fix the water bubbler so it won't wet the kids at lunch.

I, Tina Dobrzynski, leave to Mr. Gagne,

I, Claudia Houston, leave to Jay Messina, a 40 year old gifted Italian.

I, Eileen Cunningham, leave Jeff Yanagi, my extra inches in hopes that he will someday join the league of giants.

I, Joseph Jacinto, leave to Frank DiAngelis, a pair of scissors from my Art I class.

I, Sharon Allen, leave Mr. Jennings an A on my term paper about types of women in "Idles of the King".

I, Sadie Milad, leave Miss Sherman, 25 homework papers and my ripped up algebra book.

I, Terri Messiti, leave Mr. Meliaall the nylons that I ruined on my desk in art class.

We, Lynn Turchi and Cynthia Suzedelys, leave some poor juniors our cherished seats in the back of Mr. Fradetts room.

We, Duncan's Dolls, leave Mr. Duncan our two defeats.

We, Mal Clarck, Lynn Turchi, and Marion Winward, leave to Mr. Agostino one bird to keep him company during lunch.

I, Bev Brown, leave to some unsuspecting junior, my slightly used place at the book mobile.

We, Janice Fugge and Linda Eaton, leave to Mr. Duncan one penny and a pass to wherever he wants to go in search of whatever he's looking for.

We, Linda Eaton and Maureen Slattery, leave to Jane Pitman all the jokes we shared in our Art II class.

I, Claudia Houston, leave to Ken Wetmore one old and soggy shoe to fit into his mouth every time he opens it, How does it taste?

PRESENTED AND WITNESSED THIS FIFTH DAY OF JUNE IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-SEVEN.

CLASS PROPHECY

by
JOANNE SIERPINA
and DOREAN HILLNER

Time: 1987
Place: Tenney High School—Reunion of the Class of 1967

Joanne: Dorean Hellner. I haven't seen you in ages! Where have you been keeping yourself all these years?

Dorean: Well, I've been living in California. I'm teaching there, you know. Of course, it isn't very often that I return to visit good old Methuen, but I wouldn't have missed this reunion for the world. By the way, I've heard that you're most successful in your chosen profession. Are you enjoying teaching?

Joanne: Oh, yes! I'm located at Tenney now, You can't imagine how changed everything is. The school population is 2000. JOYCE BORRUN, JOANNE GRASSO, BARBARA LAWTON, JUDY SIMONIAN, and SHIRLEY DESROCHER are faculty members. BETTY JACINTO, MARY LARKIN, and NANCY JAWORSKI are secretaries in the office. The physical education instructors are LINDA GAGNON, PAM DONAHUE, MIKE BESHARA, and DAN O'ROURKE. ANN GROSS, who is our principal, recently fired the head of the English department because he refused to teach Manter Hall and Word Wealth. He is none other than GREG BERNADINI. BEVERLY FERRANTE, KIM LODGE, and RANDALL RICCIO are our new guidance counsellors. DENNIS ELIAS, DONNA FICHERA, and BETTY HAJJAR teach in the junior high annex. We hardly ever meet, though.

Dorean: I didn't realize that so many of our classmates intended to follow a teaching career. I did know that CLAIRE MACOUL and MAUREEN DUPUIS teach English in Arizona, BOB FRANCIS history in Haverhill, JOHN HOLLINS math at a boy's school in Texas, and LYNN TURCHI basketweaving at a rehabilitation center in New York. Somehow I was really stunned when I learned that at Tenney the Dean of Girls is now CAROL MARCOUX. And imagine, the Dean of Boys is SAM NADDIFF! Is it true that DEAN ALLEN is now head custodian and his assistants are BOB WHITTAKER, PAUL METZNER, WILLIAM PARIS, and RICHARD LEES?

Joanne: Yes, it is. I heard that NANCY WETMORE, JOYCE DESROCHER, CAROL AVEDISIAN, JANICE PANKAUSKI, and MARY ELLEN HARRIS are now instructing at U. MASS. Janice, as you might know, is studying for her Doctor's degree.

Dorean: Oh, have you heard about the fabulous position GLEN KACHADORIAN now holds? Well, he enjoys a plush office as Dean of U. Mass. PETER MAY and RICHIE WAITHE are two of his assistants. I understand that they really have a smashing time together. One time, CARLEEN SMERIGLIO, a teacher at the University, had a severe case of hiccups, and some of the faculty members recommended that she see Dr. JOHN HARNISCH, the world's foremost authority on hiccups. When she visited his office, Carleen was happy to meet his secretaries, SUE DIODATI, SARA HANSON, JOYCE CARLSON, and NANCY LANGEVIN. Dr. Harnisch recommended her to the well-known hypnotist, BILL GALARNEAU, to whom all the doctor's hiccup patients are referred.

Joanne: Speaking of doctors, did you know that FRED PAVONE is a brain surgeon at Methuen General Hospital? The building was designed by RUSS TORRISI and ROBERT RHEAULT, two well-known architects. RONALD CUSCIA, PAUL ASHWORTH, RICHARD AUFIERO, and LARRY MONTEFUSCO installed the plumbing, and NIEL KEATING, KEN HOMSEY, and JOHN LEFEBVRE were the electricians. The chief dietician at the hospital is NANCY RUSSELL, and KEN GREENWOOD butchers all the meats that are used there. CHERYL WILSON is supervisor of the X-ray technicians. Her staff includes BARBARA PERKINS, JANE GAUDREAU, ROSEMARY TRUSSELL, JUDY LIPPOLD, and CAROL FOSTER. Among the doctors' secretaries are NANCY VETTRONE, CAROLYN PELLERIN, SADIE MILAD, and LINDA FRANCIOSA.

Dorean: I understand that a malpractice suit against the hospital was successfully defended recently by TOM LECLAIRE and his associates CHRIS DEVANEY and ARTHUR MARTINEAU. It seems that TOM TINNEY, a patient in the hospital, sued Dr. ANTONY FRANCIOSA, because he placed a green cast on Tom's leg instead of a white one. BOB BERNIER was the judge in the case, and decided in favor of the doctor.

Joanne: Many of our classmates follow the stock market because they're so successful in business. A breakfast cereal called Soggies is said to be a real "smash" with all the little kiddies. RAYMOND FOLEY serves as president of the company and LOUIS GAGNON is chairman of the board. Other board members are WILLIAM AHIE, CATHY CURTIS, LEON GUAY, ROY NELSON, and GAIL PICARD.

Dorean: There was a rumor of rivalry between Ray's company and the cereal company whose president is DANIEL JOHNSON. The controversy developed when both companies claimed to have the same idea for the same contest at the same time. Ray was so upset over this situation that he is now seeking psychiatric aid from LYNDA BARRETT.

Joanne: Have you heard about the research two well-known psychologists JANICE SHAFER and BETH TOBIA are doing in the elementary school where CYNTHIA SUZEDELYS, KATHY SMITH, SALLY BRAIN, JANICE DAWSON, CHRISTINE DIODATI, and MARIE GERMAN are teachers? Their ambition is to learn why children in school hate Monday mornings so much.

Dorean: I heard that their study was coming along remarkably well until MAURICE LARIVIERE'S daughter spoiled everything by saying that she favored Monday morning to her much hated Friday afternoon. Janice and Beth gave her a special psychological test designed by BART DEVINE, RAY TOOMEY, and TOM SOUCY, which disproves all the theories of Sigmund Freud.

Joanne: The political scene in 1987 is dominated by Tenney graduates. ROBERT ROTONDO is governor of Massachusetts, and three of our state senators are RONALD ST. JEAN, FRANK SHRIGLEY, and JANICE MALINDRINO.

Dorean: I heard that Representative JOHN MOSCHETTO is proposing a bill to change Methuen to a city because it now has a permanent smog hanging over it. He doesn't seem to have too much support from Methuenites.

Joanne: ERNEST PICARD has taken over as dog officer in Methuen, and has among his assistants DONALD BEDARD, RICHARD DEROUIN, and DAVID VOSE. They are advocating eliminating the leash law that caused much frustration back in 1967. Remember?

Dorean: Isn't it incredible that ROBERT BARRETT is running against DAVID LAWSON for President next year? It hardly seems possible that a boy from Methuen could become President. Bob has promised that, if elected, his cabinet will consist of KEITH STETSON as Secretary of State, ROBERT LACROIX as Secretary of the Treasury, RONALD GADWAK as Defense Secretary, TONY SCIUTO would be Attorney General, and TIM FORD his advisor on alcoholic affairs.

Joanne: Dave has vowed to do more research in the field of oceanography. He assigned BERNARD HEBERT, JUNE ZARZOUR, and LUCILLE GIORDANO to study the possibilities of establishing a discotheque under the ocean. He has already assured BRYCE WILSON that he will be hired as disc jockey.

Dorean: FRANK MURRAY, CARL CONLEY, and KEN TOMACCHIO were recently arrested in our home town for posting campaign posters too near the polling places.

Joanne: I heard that policemen NICHOLAS MURRAY, ERNEST NAYLOR, and PAUL REARDON had apprehended someone for such an offence, but I didn't know their names.

Dorean: A few weeks ago I spoke with TOM HARGREAVES, manager of the (GEORGE) WILLIAMS Travel Agency, and he told me that there is much demand for tickets to JOHN GUIDE'S Sahara Desert Retreat for retarded surfers. BEV VOGEL, ELAINE GRASS, and JEAN HALDANE are in charge of all community affairs at the Retreat, and ROBERT HEFFERNAN, PHIL SPARTA, LORRAINE HESS, and KAROL KALIL are athletic directors. A new sport combining football, basketball, and baseball invented by JOE BUGLIONE is proving unusually popular. The reason is that rules are made up as one plays the game.

Joanne: Not long ago in the Sahara community taxes were outlawed which put accountants BERNARD ALBERS, GEORGE FILTEAU, LINDA FLOYD, and ELAINE HEFFERNAN out of business. All necessary funds for the maintenance of the community were contributed by two millionaires, DAVID WORTHINGTON and RITA KARPOWITZ.

Dorean: ED GOMES is there, too. He thought he saw a U.F.O. one night, but it turned out to be some sort of contraption sent into space by nuclear physicist MIKE FEDERICO. Believing it was a shooting star, ROLAND BEAUDOIN rushed for his rifle and shot it.

Joanne: Transportation proved a big problem so MAURICE MESSINA, RICHARD RHODES, and PETER McQUILLAN started a camel rental. Their business is really booming. EDWARD PACHECO and DIANNE PAQUIN sell swimming pools but their undertaking is quite a failure. It seems that the sun evaporates the water. They have hired BOB THESSE and RONALD WONTE to try to get them out of their predicament. MARSHA CLAMP teaches people how to ride one and two hump camels. Two of her best pupils are ED BOWER and RALPH WERMERS, whose ambition is to become camel jockeys.

Dorean: Several of our classmates have interests in the entertainment world. After Bonanza went off the air because FRED NASSAR, president of the Chevrolet Company, withdrew sponsorship, BOB BESHARA became host of an hour-long variety show which had top ratings from the very beginning. It has even had more viewers than the Dean Martin Jr. Show, featuring MARION WINWARD, DIANE MAZIARZ, GAIL ROGER, and SANDY PERILLO.

Joanne: CARL CATALANO and CLAUDIA HOUSTON, the world's greatest comedy team, made their debut on the show. Other guests have been MICHAEL ALEKEL, head chef at the White House; BARBARA ADDISON and LINDA KACHADORIAN, whose ladies' fashions are the most expensive in the world; MARCIA PERRAULT, the only mathematician ever to disprove the theories of Newton, and BILL KAUPINIS and ARTHUR KENNEY, who designed our latest space capsule. Their capsules are so small that TOM TRUSSELL was turned down for the astronaut training program because he was too tall.

Dorean: LINDA EATON, CAROLE MLECHKO, and ELAINE LeBLOND appear daily on TV. They present a vigorous exercising program every morning that guarantees to keep the housewife slim and trim. The latest dating game show called Matchmaker had CHRIS DOBRZYNSKI as hostess. Some of her guests have been DIANE DOMORADZKI, DONALD CARTER, JEAN COTE, NORMAN MALENFANT, CAROL LIMANNI, and JUDY JAWORSKI who are now all happily married, but not to each other.

Joanne: In the literary field ELLEN KENNEY and MIKE BARDSLEY are two of the most controversial authors since Grace Metalious.

Dorean: JOE GROSSMAN also writes. His comic strip is even more popular than Peanuts. LINDA AUBERT and DONNA DiNATALE have co-authored a book about winter in Siberia entitled HOW TO MAINTAIN YOUR COOL.

Joanne: Have you noticed how much Methuen has changed since our high school days? So many beautiful buildings have sprung up over the past 20 years. "Barclay's Hotel", owned by ALAN BARCLAY, has really become one of the landmarks of our state. JAMES BROWN, DAVE WILK, and CHARLES BRUCE really deserve much credit for the great job they did in helping to construct it. Plumbers PAUL BARRETT and JOHN FEOLI and electrical engineers JOHN BUDENAS and WILLIAM LEMIEUX rendered invaluable services.

Dorean: I've heard that EDGAR MALO is head chef, BOB BURNS the salad man, JOHN CARRIER the pastry cook, and WILLIAM WALSH the cashier. The waitresses, SANDRA JUTRAS, KATHY IANNALFO, ANNA NARCELLO, and MADELINE MAYNARD are underpaid and are reliant on their tips. The entertainment provided at the hotel is fantastic. JUDY MOSHIAN and BOB HOEHN frequently appear, singing their own hit songs. The guests at the hotel really enjoy the go-go dancers including CHARLOTTE SPINELLO, COLLEEN DOBECK, MARION GROVES, LOUELLA SAAB and BRENDA BONANNO.

Dorean: On my way to this reunion, I passed JOE ARONE's coffee house on Thompson Square. I've heard that the square was named after PETER THOMPSON for his acts of heroism in the Vietnam War. Recently I saw JOHN KLUCK's new barber shop located directly across the street. He employs RUSSELL PARE, DOTTIE BEELEY, SALLY GIAQUINTO, YVETTE DEMERS, and THERESA MESITI. His shop always seems to be crowded. Maybe it's because boys' knee length hair styles are no longer the fad.

Joanne: You must have seen the new art studio managed by PAT and PAULINE BIBEAU. The portraits in the window reveal the unique artistry of HARRIET KIRIAJES, MAUREEN SLATTERY, RONALD SIMONIAN, JANICE FUGGEE, LAWRENCE BEAULIEU, and MARY LEE MOYNIHAN, and are really something to see. On display in the studio are the masterpieces of PEG PATENAUDE, JOANNE MARTONE, and VIOLA PICA. These will go on sale next spring for $10,000 apiece.

Dorean: I imagine many of the wealthiest residents of Methuen will attend the showing, among whom most likely will be EDDIE JOAQUIN, President of the Arlington Trust Company; PHIL HOWSIAN and MARION HURLEY, owners of Bea's Sandwich Shop; wealthy JACK LEES; who hardly ever leaves his 40-room mansion; and prominent business woman, BARBARA LANGEVIN, who now resides in Hawaii. I should include WILLIAM CHADWICK, too, for he ranks high on the wealthy list.

Joanne: What is Bill doing now, anyway?

Dorean: Well, as a matter of fact, I was speaking with him just yesterday. You see, I was walking home when a Rolls Royce chauffeured by TED MATSES pulled up to the curbing and Ted offered me a ride home. As I looked up, I recognized seated in the back rich tycoon BILL CHADWICK, the owner of Chadwick's Flower Shop. He was most friendly and said that he was on his way to visit JAMES HOEGEN who, although the world's heavy weight boxing champion, was quite seriously hurt. As a result, he requires the attentions of bone specialists, Dr. MICHAEL CIARDELLO and Dr. CATHY BROWN.

Joanne: Oh, yes, I heard that Jim has staged quite a comeback and will be able to contend with WILLIAM K. O. CARON next month. In the near future he's scheduled to have bouts with MARK (MUSCLES) LAMBERT and WARREN (WHAMMER) WINSPER.

Dorean: I was interested to learn about the skyscraper that was built in Lawrence recently. Secretaries employed in the office section are CAROLYN MARTIN, MAUREEN PAOLINO, LOUISE GIARUSSO, FRANCES LARKIN, CHARLOTTE MESSER, and LORRAINE WATKINS. SHARON COCO, BONNIE BREARLY, SHARON MILONE, and ROSA PERRONE operated the IBM machines but they retired a short time ago to be married.

Joanne: Other classmates that are happily married are BEVERLY BROWN, ROSEANNE LUICCISANO, MARTHE VENTI, EDEL BUCHHOLZ, KATHY PAGE, and MARIA SQUADRITO. Oh, and I musn't forget CYNTHIA CROTEAU, JOANNE FARO, SALLY LoSTIMOLO, DIANE DeSANTIS, KATHY ROBILLARD, MARIE PANTO and SUSAN MINGINS.

Dorean: Have you heard anything about FRANK NAPOLITANO?

Joanne: Yes. He, PAUL LAURETTA, JOHN LEE, and GAIL HOFFMAN are surgeons at Memorial Hospital. I understand that BARRY HEBSCH and JERRY QUINTAL are seen quite often at the hospital after surgeries have been performed. They're both undertakers, you know.

Dorean: Do you remember how many of our classmates trained for nursing? KATHY ABLE, ANN COREY and SHARON ALLEN are at Memorial Hospital; SUZY SCHRUENDER and SUZANNE MIXON at St. Joseph's in Lowell; and PAT MORIN at the Dorchester Home for Incurables.

Joanne: I'm so glad that our reunion is being held in RONALD SOCIA'S Banquet Hall. TOM ROBICHAUD and his group consisting of KEN St. AMAND, PETER CHAPMAN, CHARLES CORSETTO, and CHRISTINE WILSON as lead vocalist will be providing the music soon. Magician KEN CORTEAU has promised to perform his famous nightclub act for the class.

Dorean: I suppose a prize will be given to the parent who has the largest family of children. I wonder who the lucky person will be. I heard the ROSEMARY CASALE, JACKIE CIRAS, and VALENCIA NAPOLI each have seven, but that MAL CLARKE, has nine, one set of Sextuplets and one set of triplets.

Joanne: While in Methuen you should take a grand tour of the town. It will be interesting to see the established businesses of our classmates. LEO CROTEAU, I know, owns a supermarket, and two of his clerks are BRENDA COTTONE and LINDA CUBELLI. BARBARA RICCIO is the head bookkeeper. AL DAIGLE has opened a dry cleaning shop, adjacent to TOM DALLON'S laundromat. Tom's laundry gets a lot of business from JIM DEVINE'S diaper service. Located across the street from Devine's is Kay's Beauty Salon, owned by PAT KAY. Skilled operators are PAULA VIEWIG, MARGARET FEOLI, LORRAINE PELLERIN, SUSAN ROBIDOUX, and LINDA SABOR.

Dorean: I heard that BOB FEUGILL has a prosperous service station in the square, and his mechanics are GUS FLANAGAN, STEVE GUELI, and WILLIAM HIRSCH. They're kept busy servicing the cars sold by WILLIAM HORNE who operates a used car lot.

Joanne: Did you know that after RON KOBRENSKI became a priest, he built his own church in Methuen and now has one of the largest congregations in the state? He is now planning to erect a parochial school and has asked architects WILLIAM HOWARD, BRUCE JOHNSTONE and BILL HUTTON to submit designs. Several nuns have asked to teach there when the school is completed, among whom is JUNE LONGO.

Dorean: Dr. ROBERT LaGRASSE has offices in a medical building as do dentists BILL LAFFIN, WILLIAM LAHEY, and DONALD LeBLANC. As the secretaries, Dr. LaGrasse has EILEEN CUNNINGHAM, SANDRA DEARDON, and PAULA PAGLIUSO. DONNA DEFEO and MARYANNE SYLVIA are Dr. Laffin's Secretaries.

Joanne: An organ concert at the Serlo Hall to be presented by JAMES ARENA interests me. I also plan to attend a Methuen symphony concert to hear CHARLES CAMPIONE play the oboe.

Dorean: I certainly hope you have the opportunity to attend the concerts. Right now I think we ought to be getting back to the others. I hope I have a chance to speak to you about some of the other events that have taken place since our high school days. Well, this reunion certainly proved to be a memorable occasion for me. You can't imagine how much I have enjoyed being here, seeing our old classmates, and exchanging news about them. I am pleased to know that so many have met with success.

Joanne: Yes, I always felt that our class of 1967 at Tenney High was quite special, but now I am convinced. Oh, listen, I hear music, and there will be dancing. We must join the others, but before we do let's promise to meet again for another memorable reunion in 1997.

Tenney High School

FOREWORD

As we pass through the doors of Tenney High School for the last time, our thoughts turn toward the coming years. As the doors of college, business, and industry open to our respective vocations, we look toward the future with zeal and ambition. Only in the years to come will we realize that here is the place where we were molded and prepared to meet our obligations as young adults.

I extend my sincere thanks to Mr. Lister and the entire yearbook staff for their time and effort in preparing this Torch for the Class of 1967.

TENNEY HIGH SCHOOL BAND

For the past thirty years, our band has been under the direction of Mr. Harold Mc Donnell. Our beloved friend, Mr. Mc Donnell, retired after many years of dedication to the enrichment of music in Methuen schools.

The year 1967 brought a new music supervisor and band director to Methuen. We bid farewell to Mac, and to Mr. Tarlaian we wish many prosperous years as director of our high school band.

I'm just staying one night.

Military Ball

On a snowy winter's evening, February twenty-fourth, the Cadet Corps of Methuen High School held its annual Military Ball in the high school gymnasium. This colorful event was the sixty-first in the seventy-three years of the corps' existence.

The ceremonies opened when the senior cadets presented their mothers with floral corsages. The drill squad competition was won by Company C, and Glen Shinner won the Junior drill competition. These ceremonies were followed by dancing, a first-run movie, a banquet, and professional entertainment. The Cadet Queen, Eileen Cunningham, and her attendants, Mary Beth Tobia and Carolyn Smith, reigned over the proceedings.

This year, the corps was under the command of Colonel Ronald Kobrenski, Lieutenant Colonel Richard Waithe, and Majors Peter May and William Kaupinis. The drill instructor was Mr. Alvin Huebner, and the advisor was Mr. Rene Morrissette.
